

Media Release

Dūcere announces partial MBA scholarships for Mentor alumni and financial service industry professionals

Friday May 25, 2018. Dūcere Global Business School (Dūcere) Founder & Executive Director Mathew Jacobson has announced an exciting partial scholarship opportunity for twelve Mentor Education past students (alumni) and financial service industry professionals to undertake their Master of Business Administration (MBA) in Innovation and Leadership.

Commenting further on the announcement Mathew Jacobson said he believed the partial scholarship opportunity to undertake the MBA starting in this October's intake, will act as an incentive for many industry practitioners seeking a course that links formal tertiary education with real-world experience.

"Dūcere and the University of Canberra* have come together to produce this ground-breaking MBA, delivered nationally online and provides students with the opportunity to solve real business problems as part of their learning.", said Mathew Jacobson.

"The MBA is integrated with Dūcere's global faculty, comprised of hundreds of world leaders from Presidents and past Prime Ministers, to Nobel Prize winners; has no exams and embeds projects with organisations including NAB, KPMG, SEEK and the Federal Government amongst others".

This unique MBA was acknowledged as a finalist in the 2017 Australian Financial Review Higher Education Awards for Industry Engagement. The Australian newspaper said:

"The most unique MBA in the world...focusing on real industry problems".

Dūcere works with some of the world's largest and most dynamic organisations, delivering shared value through MBA projects. Through access to dynamic groups of experienced industry professionals, working with the support of leading academics, Dūcere's industry partners receive highly valuable IP that solves real strategic challenges, whilst giving students learnings beyond academic material.

Mathew Jacobson continued, "The MBA is a project – based curriculum in which students apply everything learnt to real-world situations and practical business challenges. Being immersed in the MBA's challenges and working within team

